

Seminary and Bible College Student Application
For the Rosa Sailes Legacy Award
2019-2020 Academic Year
Application Deadline: September 30, 2019

Through the Rosa Sailes Legacy Award, the Ezra Project provides one-time monetary awards to Seminary and Bible College students who are currently pursuing degrees in accredited theological institutions. Applicants must demonstrate their involvement in Christian ministry and their work in community service as well as their academic effort. Most importantly applicants must explain how their academic pursuit in a theological institution will prepare them for future ministry that contributes to the uplift of the African American church and community.

Applications will be accepted until September 30, 2019. Application packages must contain all materials including this application, current transcript, the essay, statement of faith, and sealed letters of recommendation. A decision will be made by October 20, 2019. Recipients will be invited to the Torchbearers' Legacy Luncheon where the awards will be presented.
