

Seminary and Bible College Student Application

For the Rosa Sailes Legacy Award

Academic Year 2023-2024

Application Deadline: May 31, 2023

The Rosa Sailes Legacy Scholars Award from The Ezra Project provides one-time monetary awards to African American adults who are pursuing a post-secondary education through an accredited Seminary or Bible College. Applicants may either be residents of the Chicago area attending an accredited seminary or Bible college in the United States or residents of other states who are full-time, in-person attendees at a Chicago area institution. Applicants must have completed at least one year of study and be currently and actively pursuing degrees in accredited theological institutions.

Applicants must be active members in a local church and must demonstrate involvement in both Christian ministry and community service as well as academic effort. Most importantly, applicants must explain how their academic pursuit in a theological institution will prepare them for future ministry that contributes to the uplift of the African American church and community.

REQUIREMENTS:

To be considered for the Rosa M. Sailes Legacy Scholars Award applicants must:

- Be actively pursuing a degree in an accredited seminary for the 2023-2024 academic year.
- Provide a statement of faith as well as an essay as indicated on the application.
- Show proof of enrollment and class schedule for the accredited institution.
- Provide an official copy of a transcript from the current institution indicating a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- Be an active member in a local church.

HOW TO APPLY:

To apply for the Rosa M. Sailes Legacy Scholars Award, complete and email the application to ezrafactor@gmail.com along with the following items:

___ Statement of Faith: Include a 50-100 word statement of faith including your baptism and church and/or denomination affiliation(s).

___ Essay: Include an essay of 750-1000 words that explains (a) your current involvement in your local church including any ministries or auxiliaries with which you participate, (b) how you envision your seminary or Bible college work will prepare you for your next phase of ministry and uplift of the African American church and community.

___ Official Transcript(s). Your current institution must either submit an official "sealed" copy of your current academic transcript and current class schedule to The EZRA Project, P.O. Box 438825, Chicago, IL 60643 or email an official copy to ezrafactor@gmail.com. (Unofficial copies will not be accepted.) If previous seminary, Bible colleges, or accredited post-graduate institutions were attended, those transcripts may be submitted as additional support of academic effort.

___ Four (4) Letters of Recommendation

The deadline to apply for scholarship is May 31, 2023. All applications, transcripts, letters of recommendation and supporting documents must be submitted no later than this date.
